Group 5

- What is the value and impact of data for the future of CSLS?

- Data is important- BUT

- Data is decontextualized (MOOCS completion rates)

- We collect data that is easy to collect, but not necessarily relevant (Assessment of faculty teaching)

- Data tells us how things are, but we need to think about how things could or should be (What in addition to data is needed to achieve that)