Friday, March 12

1:00 – 1:15 PM EST: Welcome and Introductions
Overview of event format, tools for interacting with participants

1:15 -1:40 PM EST: Networking
Participants connect with others at their “virtual table”

1:40-1:50 PM EST: Break

1:50-2:30 PM EST: Panel 1: Teaching Faculty Careers
Panelists will describe the role of teaching faculty at different institutions, and how their careers have evolved.
Chair: Lori Pollock (U of Delaware)
Panelists: Adam Blank (Caltech), Shaundra Daily (Duke), Margaret Ellis (Virginia Tech)

2:30-2:50 PM EST: Break

2:50-3:30 PM EST: Panel 2: Promotion and Advancement
Panelists will describe how teaching faculty are evaluated at their institutions, and point out important aspects of the process
Chair: Geoffrey Herman, University of Illinois
Panelists: Nate Derbinsky (Northeastern), Joe Hummel (UIC), Sara Sood (Northwestern)

3:30-4:00 PM EST: Table discussions about the panels
Participants will discuss what they learned in the panels in small groups. Mentors will help synthesize the information and provide another perspective.

4:00 -4:15 PM EST: Break

4:15-4:45 PM EST: Affinity breakouts
Chair: Christine Alvarado, UC San Diego
Issues for experienced/teaching faculty: This final session will provide repeat attendees and more experienced teaching faculty with a chance to network with each other.
Issues identified by participants: During the event, participants will identify issues they would like to discuss in more detail. Breakout groups will be organized by the most popular topics.

4:45-5:00 PM EST: Wrap up and next steps

CRA-E would like to thank NSF for generously providing funding for this event.

Slides and other related material will be posted at https://cra.org/crae/professional-development-workshop-for-teaching-track-faculty-at-sigcse-2021/.