Tenure-Track Faculty Positions in Computer Science (2)

Middlebury College invites applications for two full-time tenure-track faculty positions in computer science, beginning in Fall 2023. All areas of computer science will be considered, including applied areas with interdisciplinary focus. Teaching responsibilities will include courses throughout the undergraduate computer science curriculum with an emphasis on the candidate's areas of expertise; as well as regular contributions to the college-wide curriculum, including the first-year seminar program and winter term. Appointments will be made at the rank of Assistant Professor (Ph.D.) or Instructor (ABD). Candidates should provide evidence of commitment to excellent teaching and scholarly potential.

Middlebury College is a top-tier liberal arts college with a demonstrated commitment to excellence in faculty teaching and research. An Equal Opportunity Employer, the College is committed to hiring a diverse faculty as we work to foster innovation in our curriculum and to provide a rich and varied educational experience to our increasingly diverse student body. Women, people of color, veterans, people with disabilities, and members of the LGBTQ+ community are encouraged to apply.

Review of applications will begin on October 1, 2022 and will continue until the positions are filled. Middlebury College uses Interfolio to collect all faculty job applications electronically. Email and paper applications will not be accepted. At Middlebury, we strive to make our campus a respectful, engaged community that embraces difference, with all the complexity and individuality each person brings. Your application materials should include a separate, one-page statement on inclusion that addresses how your teaching, scholarship, mentorship, and/or community service demonstrate a commitment to and/or evidence of engaging with issues of diversity and inclusion. Through Interfolio submit: a letter of application addressed to Amy Briggs, Department Chair; curriculum vitae; teaching statement; research statement; statement on inclusion; graduate transcript; and three current letters of recommendation, at least two of which must speak to teaching ability.
