

CAL POLY

Search for the Founding Director, The Noyce School of Applied Computing

California Polytechnic State University in San Luis Obispo, CA, seeks a visionary and collaborative leader to serve as its Founding Director of The Noyce School of Applied Computing.

The successful candidate will have credentials appropriate for a tenured appointment at the rank of professor.

For more details, including the full position profile and to submit inquiries, nominations, and applications, please see the Isaacson, Miller website here:

<https://apptrkr.com/3608341>