

Randolph-Macon College invites applications for two full-time, tenure-track positions of Assistant Professor in the Department of Computer Science to begin September 2024. All areas of specialization will be considered, but for one of the positions we are especially interested in applicants with experience or specialization in either security or data analytics.

Randolph-Macon College does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, creed, religion, age, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, national origin, marital status, disability, or veteran status in its education or employment programs or activities.

To apply, visit the online application at <https://bit.ly/rmc1552>.

Review of applications will begin October 16, 2023 continuing until the position is filled.
